A CORN CARNIVAL!

SEYMOUR ALWAYS ORIGINAL, AGAIN SETS THE PACE FOR OTHER INDIANA CITIES TO FOLLOW.

A meeting of merchants last night decided that Seymour should again go to the front in the matter of municipal entertainments, and this time in the new and novel form of a "Corn Carnival." This unique celebration is to be held three or four days about the middle of October and is to be in a way a form of jollification over the splendid corn crop that has been raised in this and adjoining counties.

Corn and its products are to be given prominence in every way. A Corn Palace is to be erected in the Main streets, all business houses are to use corn stalks, sheaves, etc., in decorating; hundreds of dollars in cash prizes for various qualities of corn are to be offered. All sorts of products from corn are to be exhibited and corn-parades will be held on at least two days of the celebration. Particular care is to be taken to show our friends from the country a good time. Three bands of music will be engaged; a number of high-class vaudeville acts will be given and everything is to be absolutely free. There is to be no financial benefit to any one, the whole plan of the entertainment to be to the end of drawing closer the relations of the neighboring farmers to our town people. Our citizens, who have the matter in charge, are men of standing and prominence and their success in managing similar affairs in the past, is a sufficient guarantee that this can be no failure.

There remains now only the support moral and financial, of the public in general to make the Corn Carnival an assured success, and a committee appointed for the purpose, will call on the merchants early next week, soliciting contributions to the expense fund.

Mayor J. M. Shields attended the preliminary meeting last night, and gave the enterprise his unqualified endorsement. The organization of the executive committee is as follows:

T. S. BLISH, Chairman.
GEO. PETER, Secretary.
G. G. GRAESSLE, Treasurer.
W. L. JOHNSON.
J. F. SHIEL.

Comedy or Tragedy?

Household Dramas on which the Curtain is Drawn.

The daily press makes as familiar a scene with the drunkard's family in which the intoxicated man finding the meal not to his liking, throws it on the floor and proceeds to vent his temper by smashing crockery and furniture. This is pure tragedy to the abused and helpless family, and to the onlooker who through the windows of the press views the sad scene. But the daily paper never has a word to say about the sober and reputable man of family, who, in a fit of irritation, dashes to the floor or out of the window some dish not to his liking. The press doesn't tell because it doesn't know. Family pride and love draw the curtains of privacy closely about such scenes, and it is only when the long ous mining man, I thought these facts might be of some benefit to some of my acquaintances."

THE WORST THING TO DO.

The worst thing to do when the stomach is diseased and causes discomfort, such as belching or acidity, is to take the form of pills, tablets, powders, etc. These are not remedies for the disease. They only superficially change existing conditions. Allow that they "sweeten" the stomach, release the accumulated gas, check fermentation, etc. All this is only temporary. The diseased condition of the stomach is untouched. Disease never stands still, and therefore the stomach itself is getting worse instead of better. It is the result of the use of some of these numerous palliatives that men and women, when they have exhausted their little helplessness, find themselves with an aggravated form of stomach "trouble." If these palliatives had not disguised and covered up the earlier symptoms, the people would long ago have sought and found a real cure.

The moral is that if your stomach is "weak" or diseased don't trifle with trivial palliatives—get the medicine which cures disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, well known to-day, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"For three years I suffered untold agony," writes Mrs. H. R. White, of Stanstead, Stanstead Co., Quebec, Box 115. "I would have spells of trembling and being sick at my stomach, pain in right side all the time; then it would work up into my stomach, and such distress it is impossible to describe. I wrote to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, stating my case to them, and they very promptly answered and told me what to do. I took eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and five vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Thanks to Dr. Pierce and his medicine I am a free woman to-day. Dr. Pierce's medicine also cured my mother of liver complaint from which she had been a sufferer for fifteen years. We recommend these medicines to all suffering people."

WHAT YOU MAY EXPECT.

You may expect from the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" the same results which have followed its use in a multitude of other cases. You may expect that the stomach will be perfectly and permanently cured; that by the perfect digestion and assimilation of food the whole body will receive new strength; that lost flesh will be regained. You may expect that if the disease of the stomach has involved the heart, liver, kidneys or other organs, that the diseases of these organs will be cured with the cure of the stomach.

Why may these things be expected? Because they are the common experience of those who have been cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery." These experiences follow the law of expectations, by which we naturally expect that an effect which has usually followed a given cause will not cease to follow it. By the same law you may expect "Golden Medical Discovery" to cure you. It has a record of cures, covering nearly a third of a century. In ninety-eight cases out of every hundred it has perfectly and permanently cured the diseases for which it is prescribed and recommended.

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. WISDOM FOR PENNIES.

A 100-page book, free. You can get the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, the best medical book ever published, free, by sending stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 11 stamps for the cloth-bound volume, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A GREAT MAN GONE

Professor Virchow Is Dead at His Home in Berlin.

Berlin, Sept. 6.—Prof. Rudolph Virchow, the pathologist, died here at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The papers here print glowing eulogies of the deceased professor, classing him as the world's greatest medical and scientific reformer and saying that no other man had so deeply influenced modern medicine and that no other had such a world-wide reputation and so many followers in all lands. The papers also praise his humanitarian activity in improving the Berlin hospitals and other sanitary institutions and the liberal organs extol his political activity and unswerving liberalism. Had Virchow done nothing else, the work rendered to the city of Berlin would have immortalized his name for future times. To him is due in large measure that Berlin, at one time one of the unhealthiest, has become one of the most healthful and cleanest cities of the world.

PROFESSOR VIRCHOW.

VOLCANIC EFFECTS

Midnight Darkness Prevailed For Miles Out at Sea.

Castries, Island of St. Lucia, Sept. 6.—The eruption of Mount Pelee on Sept. 3 was not remarkable, but there was a terrific explosion from the Soufriere Sept. 3. The captain of the steamer Savan, now here, confirming the report cable Thursday night that she had ran into dense clouds of dust when 20 miles southwest of St. Vincent at 2 o'clock of the morning of Wednesday, adds that absolute darkness prevailed afterward and that he changed his course to due west in order to avoid the ashes which were falling thick. The first officer could not see the captain two feet away, and only knew him by his voice. They did not see the sun until about 10 a. m. the same day.

The steamer Yare further reports that several more valuable plantations were destroyed at the time of the recent outbreak in addition to the townships referred to in previous dispatches, and announces that anxiety and dejection of the surviving population is general.

THE DOORBELL.

It Tells What Manner of Man You Are by Your Ring.

Doorbells are pretty fair indicators of character. Probably you have not been conscious of it, but every time you pull a doorknob you register what manner of man you are. Your ring will not tell everything about you, from the color of your eyes to your taste in flowers, but to those who know the signs the doorknob is as good as a title page. Any one who has had occasion to answer bell pulls knows how much difference there is in them. One person's method varies little from time to time, though the difference between that method and somebody else's, while slight, will be sufficiently well marked. It is seldom that two rings are exactly alike.

The housewife recognizes each, the impatient man, who pulls the bell twice in quick succession and does not wait long before trying it again; the one of more phlegmatic temperament, whose ring is slower and more substantial; the hesitating woman, who draws the knob out in a succession of nervous jerks; the seedy individual with matches to sell, who stretches the wire carefully to its full length, and then allows it to relax with a faint, apologetic tinkle, and the jolly friend, who knows he is welcome, and therefore grasps the knob with a hearty swing that is fairly eloquent with good nature, and sets the bell to shaking its sides with such peals of echoing laughter that it positively cannot stop at once, but subsides gradually with a merry, irrepressible little titter. A doorknob has as many voices as the Doan's—Berlin (M.D.) Herald.

LESTLESS AND LANGUID

HOW OFTEN YOU HEAR IT, NOT REAL SICK, JUST TIRED, PLAYED OUT, NO STRENGTH, NO ENERGY, LESTLESS, LANGUID, NERVOUS, DON'T CARE WHAT HAPPENS, A COMMON CONDITION EARLY CURED.

Mrs. G. Mitchell of 626 north Chestnut street, Seymour, Ind., says: "I was troubled with severe nervousness, nervous headache and felt languid and tired. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at A. J. Pellens' drug store and after using the medicine I am pleased to say my nerves are steadied, the headache relieved and I feel stronger and better every day! I think these pills a splendid nerve tonic and health builder."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Why the Drowning Man Always Throws Up His Hands.

The usual idea that a drowning man is stretching out his hands for aid or "catching at straws" is not altogether satisfactory. A possible explanation has lately been suggested, and this supposes that the drowning man, losing all his acquired habits and even some of those inherited from more recent parents, in his terror goes back to the instinctive movements of his arborescent ancestors, and the movements of the drowning man are those of a frightened ape seeking safety by clinging to the nearest tree.

The movement is certainly instinctive, for it can only be eliminated by considerable training and voluntary efforts, and yet it is fatal to the individual, for the specific gravity of no human body is so nearly that of water that the removal of the arms from the supporting fluid at once sinks the face beneath the surface. In cases of so-called "cramps" the victim, often a highly trained swimmer, generally throws up the hands, but these cases are probably due to heart failure, and a similar movement takes place on land when the subject receives a fatal heart wound, and it is even a common expression of shock or astonishment. The ordinary movement of walking or running would keep a man's face above water, but these curious climbing movements of both hands and feet make floating impossible and are responsible for many deaths by drowning.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

DISCOVERED BY ACCIDENT.

How the Paving Value of Asphalt Was Brought to Notice.

All forms of bituminous pavements, whether manufactured from natural or artificial asphalt, are in fact artificial stone pavements. The industry started with the use of the natural rock asphalt from the mines in the Val de Travers, Canton Neuchâtel, Switzerland. The mines were discovered in 1721, but it was 1849 that its utility as a road covering was first noticed. The rock was then being mined for the purpose of extracting the bitumen contained in it for use in medicine and arts. It is a limestone found impregnated with bitumen, of which it yielded on analysis from 8 to 14 per cent.

It was observed that pieces of rock which fell from the wagon were crushed by the weight of wheels, and under the combined influence of the traffic and heat of the sun a good road surface was produced. A macadam road of asphalt rock was then made which gave very good results, and finally in 1854 a portion of the Rue Bergere was laid in Paris of compressed asphalt on a concrete foundation. In 1858 a still larger sample was laid, and from that time it has been laid year by year in Paris. From Paris it extended to London, being laid on Threadneedle street in 1859 and Chapselle in 1870 and in successive years on other streets.—Municipal Journal and Engineer.

No Limit to New Ideas.

There never has been a time when the individual has stood for so much as he does at present. There has never been a time when individuality and personal initiative brought such amazing rewards. There never has been a time when the individual could do or exert so much influence as at present. There is no individual today so insignificant that, if he became the medium of a new or potent ideal, he would be prevented by uncontrollable conditions from expressing his idea and reaping his just reward.

In all ages up to this man has been, owing to his limitations of physical force, a plaything of conditions, a slave of his environment. Skill and intelligence were but two of the factors in his progress, bounded and restrained by limitations to their employment. Now, however, with universal energy at the disposal of each individual, this terrestrial sphere scarce puts bounds to his field of influence.—Cassell's Magazine.

Fruit Acids Kill Germs.

A writer in a scientific periodical states that it is not generally known that fruit acids are germicidal. "The juice," he says, "of lemons and lemons is as deadly to cholera germs as corrosive sublimate or sulphur fumes or formaldehyde or any other disinfectant. It is so powerful a germicide that if the juice of one lime or lemon be squeezed into a glass of water that is then left standing for ten or fifteen minutes the water will be disinfected. It makes little difference where the water has been obtained or whether it has been boiled or filtered." As boiled or filtered water is not always obtainable this is worth remembering.

What You Put In Your Mouth.

It is through the mouth that most malignant germs find their way into the body, and therefore one would think that it was hardly necessary to warn people against the risks they are running in using it as a sort of third hand. One would imagine that hardly any one needed cautioning against holding money with the lips, and yet an immense number of otherwise thoroughly cleanly people indulge in this dirty, dangerous practice.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycling trip, says E. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pennsylvania. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea and was about to give up the trip when Editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by C. W. Milhous, druggist.

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day.

A STORY OF TWO FLAGS.

How a Man's Life Was Saved at the Very Last Moment.

The following stirring incident of the two flags happened at Valparaiso, Chile, and was related at Montreal in 1881 by the Rev. Dr. J. O. Peck. Dr. Peck said:

"The man who gave me the facts I am about to relate was Mr. Haskins, an American sailor who had sailed to a port in Chile. On going ashore, he said, to enjoy his day of liberty he drank a little and became hilarious. One of the police officers, instead of warning him not to make a noise in the street, drew his sword and, striking him a blow, knocked him down. On that the American sailor got up and knocked the policeman down in return. He was on that arrested and tried and condemned to be shot in the morning of the following day.

"Mr. Loring, the American consul, expostulated with the authorities that it would be monstrous to shoot the man for such an offense, but they paid no attention to him, so he thereupon made a formal protest in the name of the United States government against the barbarous act. Mr. Haskins, the sailor, was in the morning brought out pinioned to be shot.

"As the English consul was preparing to hoist the union jack he saw the crowd in the field opposite, where the execution of the American sailor, of which he had heard, was to take place. Rushing over the American consul, he said, 'Loring, you're not going to let them shoot that man!'

"What can I do? he said. 'I have protested against it. I can do no more.'

"Quick as thought the English consul shouted, 'Give me your flag!' And in a trice the stars and stripes were handed to the English representative. At once, taking his own union jack in his hand, he hastened across the field, elbowed his way through the crowd and soldiery, and, running up to the doomed man, he folded the American flag around him and then laid the union jack over it. Standing a few paces back, he faced the officers and soldiers and shouted defiantly, 'Now, shoot, if you dare, through the heart of England and America!'

"And they dared not do it, for they feared the consequences, so the man was at once released. In telling me," said Dr. Peck, "Mr. Haskins said to me, with tears streaming down his cheeks even then, 'They loosed me then, and, oh, how I longed to embrace those two flags!'"—Chicago-American.

POULTRY POINTERS.

A safe rule in feeding is to give enough to satisfy and no more.

Droppings should not be allowed to accumulate in the poultry house longer than a week.

Bone dust supplies an abundance of bonemaking material and counteracts any tendency to diarrhea.

When possible, give the poultry house a southern exposure and furnish that side with an abundance of light.

While wheat is one of the best grains to feed to fowls, it should not be fed to excess or it may cause diarrhea. Feed it with other grains.

Loss of feathers is generally caused by want of green food or want of a dust bath. Supply both, and as a local application, use mercurial ointment.

Breed the best flesh formers for market; then feed them up to as great a weight as possible. Well fattened, well dressed poultry bring the best prices.

A Point of Order.

One of the conspicuous features in the decorations of a certain official building is a full length portrait of George Washington. Being just behind the speaker's chair, it is in full sight of everybody who rises to speak. During a heated discussion, which involved the honor of the state and nation, a member rose and, pointing to the portrait, began in oratorical style, "By those eyes that never quailed before an enemy, by that nose!"

Then he was interrupted by a member in the rear, who rose to a point of order.

"Mr. Chairman," said the objector, "I claim it is out of order under parliamentary rules to call the eyes and nose in a committee of the whole."—New York Times.

Of Course She Was Glad.

"So you overcame that old antipathy of yours," her husband remarked, "and called on Mrs. Bobbles?"

"Yes."

"Do you think she was glad to see you?"

"I am sure of it."

"Ahem! You must have some reason for that belief outside of her assurances."

"I have. I had on the old dress that was made over twice, my hat was out of style, and my hair had become uncurled, while she had on a gown that could not have come from anywhere but Paris. Could she help being glad to see me?"—Leslie Weekly.

Harvard University.

Harvard university derives its name from Rev. John Harvard, its earliest benefactor, who in 1638 bequeathed one half of his estate, amounting to £800, for the endowment of the college. Harvard hall was built in 1765, Holworthy hall of brick in 1812 and Hollis Hall, also of brick, in 1764. Stoughton hall, being of the same dimensions and material as Hollis, was built in 1804, and a writer of 1817 states that "its appearance is somewhat in the modern style."—Boston Budget.

"No," said Mr. Medderrass to the restaurant man; "no, I'll not say that your pie is just like mother used to make, but I'll say this—it's purt' nigh as crusty as she used to git!"—Baltimore American.

A BAD SYMPTOM

Backache is the Forerunner of Fatal Organic Disease. Every Woman Who Has This Dreaded Symptom Needs Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it not true? Women suffer, feel the very life crushed out of them, grow old before their time. Each morning wake up determined to do so much before the day ends, and yet—

Before the morning is very old the dreadful BACKACHE attacks them, the brave spirit sinks back in affliction; no matter how hard the struggle, the "clutch" is upon them and they fall upon the couch crying:

"Why should I suffer so? What can I do?"

The answer is ready, your cry has been heard, and a woman able to restore you to health and happiness.

Backache is only a symptom of more fatal trouble—heed its warning in time.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will stop your tortures and restore your courage. Your pains come from unnatural menstruation or some derangement of the womb. Let those who are suffering read Mrs. Morton's letter and be guided by her experience.

Two Letters About Backache.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for two years with my back a head. I doctored with the best doctors here but got little relief and at last thought I would try your medicine. I have found that it has done me more good than anything else I have taken. I should advise every suffering woman to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MRS. FRANK BARRETT, 184 Pearl St., Springfield, Ohio. (Dec. 16, 1900.)

If you are sick write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. Out her vast experience she probably has the very knowledge that will make you well. It will cost you nothing.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For a long time I suffered with the backache was also troubled with irregular menstruation and bearing down pain in the side and abdomen. I took some medicine but it seemed to do me good. I was in a critical condition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me more good than anything else I have used and cannot praise it enough. If all suffering women would take your medicine there would be less sickness and weak women in the world."—MARGARET COCHRAN, 177 E. Main St., St. Clairsville, Ohio. (July 28, 1900.)

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health more than a million women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice it is free.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000 which will be paid to any person who can find that the above testimonial letters are not genuine, or were published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

IT'S ALL TALK.

Yes, but it's Seymour Talk, the Kind that Tells in Seymour.

Talk that tells

Talk that's endorsed

Every-day talk by people who know City talk; kidney talk

Do kidneys talk?

Well, yes, both loud and long

Backache in kidney talk means kidney lame

Lame back means lame kidneys

Weak back means weak kidneys

A bad back is simply

The kidneys talking trouble

Here's Seymour talk and kidney talk.

Mrs. L. T. Gorrell of 709 Brown street says: "I derived great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills; sold by C. W. Milhous the druggist. My son also suffered a great deal from his kidneys and the use of Doan's Kidney Pills built him up and after taking them he had no further annoyance. My husband suffered much from a lame back, did not sleep well nights on account of the pain and a kidney weakness. He says he never had a medicine do him as much good as Doan's Kidney Pills. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity which occurs."

For sale by all dealers, price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the U. S. Remember the Doan's and take no other.
